

Modal verbs tell us how likely something is to happen.
e.g. I might go to the park at the weekend.

In the text below, underline any modal verbs that you can spot.

Modal verbs

Year 5 writing homework – return on Friday
12th December

On a sunny day, children can be seen playing joyfully in the neighborhood park with their laughter echoing through the air. Birds might be chirping in the nearby trees, adding to the natural symphony. Families could be seen enjoying picnics on the green grass, creating a warm and communal atmosphere. The aroma of freshly cut grass must be wafting through the air, providing a refreshing scent. As the day moves on, the sun may set in a blaze of colours, casting a golden glow on the surroundings. In this tranquil setting, people might find a moment of respite from the hustle and bustle of daily life, appreciating the simple pleasures that nature can bring.

CHALLENGE – Write 3 sentences of your own that all include a modal verb.