

A possessive pronoun is a pronoun used to indicate ownership or possession. It replaces a noun that indicates who owns something. E.g. This hat is mine.

TASK: Complete the passage below by filling the missing possessive pronouns.

The Mystery of the Missing Lunch

It was lunchtime at Greenhill Primary School, and everyone was excited. Jamie opened _____ lunchbox and smiled at the sandwich inside. Lily looked for _____ juice bottle, but it wasn't there!

"Has anyone seen _____ drink?" she asked.

Tom pointed to a bottle on the bench. "Is that _____, Lily?"

"No," said Lily. "That's Mia's. She always puts a sticker with _____ name on it."

Just then, the teacher walked over with a frown. "Someone left _____ lunch in the library," she said. "Does anyone know whose it is?"

The children looked at each other. "It might be Sam's," said Ben. "He always forgets _____ things!"

Possessive Pronouns Bank

Ours

Mine

His

Hers

Theirs

yours

CHALLENGE:

Write your own paragraph that includes some possessive pronouns.